

Listing for the September JOE

THE NEW ECONOMIC SCHOOL IN MOSCOW (NES) seeks to fill several Assistant Professor, tenure track positions. This represents the first stage of recruiting a permanent faculty for NES. Candidates must demonstrate the capacity for high-quality graduate instruction and the potential for significant research. Faculty will be expected to contribute to the research program of NES. Teaching takes place in both Russian and English. Compensation, including travel support for research, is competitive. Information about NES is available at <http://econ.la.psu.edu/~bickes/icknes.htm>. Candidates who will have completed their Ph.D. by August 2000 should submit their c.v., three letters of recommendation, and a sample of research to: Barry W. Ickes, Appointment Committee of NES, Department of Economics, The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, PA 16802. General Economics (010)

THE NEW ECONOMIC SCHOOL IN MOSCOW (NES) seeks several Visiting Professors for the academic year 2000-2001. Visitors to NES must come for a minimum of 7 weeks during the academic year, which runs from early September to the end of June. Visitors teach two courses at the graduate level and have full faculty privileges. Teaching experience at the graduate level is critical. Teaching is in English. Compensation is competitive and based on accomplishment. Information about NES is available at <http://econ.la.psu.edu/~bickes/icknes.htm>. Candidates who are interested should submit their c.v. along with a sample of research to: Barry W. Ickes, Appointment Committee of NES, Department of Economics, The Pennsylvania State University, University Park, PA 16802. General Economics (010)